NATIVITY
OF OUR LORD

“Speak, Mary, declaring
What you saw, wayfaring.”
(Easter Sequence)

Dear Parishioner,

On this most solemn Sunday Mass of Easter, you might have been caught off guard when, as you were ready to hear the Alleluia being intoned, a cantor instead approached the ambo and intoned the Easter Sequence, “Christians, to the Paschal Victim, offer your thankful praises!” he sang. Then, he proclaimed the news, “Death and life have contended in the combat stupendous: The Prince of life, who died, reigns alive.”

The proclamation could have simply concluded here, having said all that was enough for us to hear. Christ fought for us against death. He willingly surrendered himself truly to death, and yet, only temporarily, just to finally defeat it. However, the Easter Sequence, could not simply end without making space for us, humans, to ask how we discovered Christ’s resurrection. Therefore, in the Sequence, the main witness is summoned: Mary Magdalene. “Speak, Mary, declaring what you saw, wayfaring.” These words of inquiry could have been the ones of Peter, after he saw Mary bursting into the room, announcing while panting, that Christ has risen. “Speak, Mary, what did you see on the way?” His question was driven by the urgent desire to know the real truth about this incomprehensible and unexplainable news. For us, it’s now filled with the desire to hear again and again the details about that discovery, wishing it could have been us in her place. Her response is reported through quick flashes of memory, that tell it all, “The tomb of Christ, who is living,/ the glory of Jesus’ resurrection;/ bright angels attesting,/ the shroud and napkin resting.” In conclusion, she confirms the fact, scattering the fears that all this could have been just a rumor spread by mourning women having gone mad. “Christ indeed is risen.”

Dear Brothers and Sisters, let’s rejoice with Mary Magdalen and all the saints. Christ, our hope, is truly risen!

Fr. Emanuele Fadini

Sequence:
*Victimæ paschali laudes

Christians, to the Paschal Victim
Offer your thankful praises!
A Lamb the sheep redeems;
Christ, who only is sinless,
Reconciles sinners to the Father.
Death and life have contended in that
combat stupendous:
The Prince of life, who died,
reigns immortal.
Speak, Mary, declaring
What you saw, wayfaring.
“The tomb of Christ, who is living,
The glory of Jesus’ resurrection;
Bright angels attesting,
The shroud and napkin resting.
Yes, Christ my hope is arisen;
to Galilee he goes before you.”
Christ indeed from death is risen,
our new life obtaining.
Have mercy, victor King,
ever reigning!
Amen. Alleluia.

GROWING IN HOLINESS TOGETHER

FAMILIES of JP II — HALF-DAY TOGETHER IN MARCH

During our “Half-Days Together,” all the families meet with their children, the priests, and the sisters for a Sunday afternoon. We have lunch, singing, and some games. Then, while the kids have a moment with high school volunteers and some of the sisters, the adults have a talk with the priests.

Once a year, each small group shares a few days of vacation, usually during the summer, accompanied by the sisters and/or one of the priests. Prayer together, hikes, singing, good food, and nice conversations are the core of our proposal.

WHO WE ARE

A ministry to accompany couples on their marriage journey. We strive to:

Offer support and guidance on marriage and family through small groups of 4-6 families each

Create a local community to foster friendship, to take accountability, and to share our difficulties and successes

Help each other to live our Faith and to know Christ

If this is something you may be interested in, please fill out the interest form on the parish website, and we will be in touch with you soon!

the one Morning Star who never sets,
Christ your Son,
who, coming back from death's domain,
has shed his peaceful light on humanity,
and lives and reigns for ever and ever.

From The Exsultet: The Proclamation of Easter

The Paschal Candle, representing Christ, burns bright at Easter. We rejoice in our risen Lord who has conquered sin and death. The sadness of Good Friday gives way to joy. Easter is about hope. As we celebrate the beauty of nature coming into bloom, we reflect on the greatest love story ever told. Christ is the source of beauty, truth, goodness, and everlasting life. At St. Vincent de Paul (SVDP), we wish you and your family and friends many blessings during this Easter season. For information on our Nativity chapter, check out: flocknote.com/svdp for meeting times and updates.

SAMARITAN HOUSE DONATIONS

There is an ongoing URGENT NEED of all hygiene items (preferred small or travel sizes of soap, shampoo, toothpaste, toothbrushes, deodorant, lip balm, and body lotion), feminine hygiene products, bath and hand towels, new women's underwear (larger sizes), new women's bras (all sizes), warm clothing (sweatshirts, sweat pants, coats for men, women, and children all sizes), shoes (boots, shower). Please bring the NEW items to the parish office and they will be delivered by one of our SH weekly volunteers.

SUPPORT OFFERED BY STEPHEN MINISTRY AT NATIVITY

An important theme of the Lenten season is the humanity of Christ. In Jesus, God became human and fully experienced the wide range of emotions we all encounter in life. Jesus experienced times of loneliness, sadness, hurt, anger, disappointment, grief, and abandonment. That is part of being human. Another part of being human is needing help from each other. God never intended us to be completely self-sufficient. Part of God's plan is for each of us to turn to others for help when we need it.

So when you are experiencing difficult times, don't struggle alone. Our parish Stephen Ministers will walk with you, listen to you, encourage you, pray with you, and provide confidential one-to-one care to help you through tough times. Stephen Ministers can bring the love of Jesus back into your life.

To speak to a Stephen Minister, please call our helpline at 303-469-5171 x 113.

Our Stephen Ministers are ready to care for you!

2023-2024

From Knight Times Newsletter
March 31, 2023

We would like to announce some staffing changes that will be taking place at our school next year.

Our beloved school librarian, Cathy Hogan, will be retiring after serving the school community for several years. Cathy has done an outstanding job of overseeing the school library and providing teachers and students with access to grade-level texts and resources. Her contributions to the school community will be deeply missed, and we wish her a happy and healthy retirement.

Additionally, we regret to inform you that our art teacher, Sandra Latino, will not be returning next year. Ms. Latino has done an exceptional job of taking over due to last-minute staffing changes and creating an art classroom that supports the school's mission. She has also gone above and beyond by running after-school art clubs multiple times a week. We are grateful for her hard work and dedication to our students!

We would like to inform you that we are currently seeking an art teacher for the upcoming school year. If you know of anyone who would be interested in this role, please encourage them to reach out to the school.

We regret to inform you that our Director of Advancement, Erica Bardeau, will be stepping away from her role after helping to make massive transformations in the school. Erica has overseen our most successful year ever in fundraising, which has allowed us to add classes, provide small class sizes, and fund major building improvements. She has also done a great job of increasing volunteers in the school and providing communication with the community. Erica has also been teaching Kindergarten through second grade music this past year, and this will leave another staffing need. We are grateful for her tireless efforts and her impact on our school community.

We are pleased to announce that we have hired new teachers for the upcoming school year. Michael Schwerin, who has been involved in education for several years as a teacher, tutor, and substitute teacher, will be filling the 4th grade position. Jen McAnally, who has been an instructional assistant in Kindergarten for the last eight years, will be teaching the new 1st grade class.

We are also excited to announce that Lynn Smith, a mother in our school who has frequently volunteered this past year, worked in the preschool and 4th grade, and recently coached our 4th grade girls to a CSAL basketball championship, will be taking over as the Athletic Director.

We are currently exploring different options for the Director of Advancement role, a Teacher for K-2 Music, as well as an aide for the Kindergarten classroom. If you know of anyone who would be interested in filling or volunteering for these roles, please encourage them to reach out to the school.

Thank you for your continued support and commitment to our school community.

ARCHBISHOP AQUILA'S APRIL PRAYER INTENTION

FOR THOSE BEING BAPTIZED OR RECEIVED INTO THE CHURCH AT EASTER

“So, whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.” (2 Cor. 5:17)

The Church celebrates at the Easter Vigil, which is the “Mother of All Vigils,” the Lord’s Resurrection from the dead, culminating in his Ascension to the Father, and the sending of the Holy Spirit upon the Church. After 40 days of Lent, we come to the great joy of Easter, where we celebrate the most important event and the foundation of our Christian faith – Christ’s Resurrection.

Within the Easter Vigil, the Church receives and welcomes new members, the catechumens, through the waters of Baptism, the first sacrament of Christian initiation. With each Baptism, the number of faithful increases, making the celebration of Easter even more special. On this day, we see many brothers and sisters of different ages, backgrounds, and experiences become a new creation in Christ. They die to the old self and are reborn into a new life through participation in the resurrection of Christ.

“Jesus answered, Amen, amen, I say to you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh and what is born of spirit is spirit” (Jn 3:5-6). Jesus says that one only enters the kingdom of God by being born again.

Baptism is just the beginning of our new life though! It is not enough to just be born again, it is necessary to grow and persevere in this new life that Christ has won for each of us. While the Lord’s graces through Baptism have put to death original sin, concupiscence remains, which is the attraction or inclination to the disorder of sin. The temptations of our old ways of life, the seduction of the world and the disordered pleasures of the flesh will continue to attack. Our day-to-day life may still be surrounded by temptations to return to our old life. The Devil will persist with his lies and deceptions to steal, kill and destroy the graces of Baptism and the new life.

However, this fight against the Devil and sin has already been overcome by Christ on the Cross. We have confidence that everyone who is born and abides in Christ is also assured of his victory over the enemy and sin. But it is not enough to be born in Christ, it is also necessary to abide in a relationship with him. This new life must be constantly nourished and cared for in Christian community. Simple ways we can nourish this new life include attending Holy Mass, receiving the sacraments of communion and reconciliation, living the precepts of the Church, living a life of prayer, receiving ongoing formation in the Catholic faith and entering into a life of prayer and communion with other brothers and sisters. We take this action to nourish our spiritual lives in order to remain in supernatural unity with the church of Christ and to live in plenitude “the love of God that has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us” (Rom. 5:5).

Archbishop Samuel J. Aquila’s prayer intentions for April, which all the faithful of the Archdiocese of Denver are invited to join in, are for each of the new members added to the Church. All those who are being baptized or being received into the Church at Easter are not beginning this new journey alone! May this new life that Christ earned for these new members of the Church grow and endure in them until it is one day consummated with Mary, the angels, and saints in the eternal kingdom of heaven, with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

To those who suffer, God does not provide arguments which explain everything; rather, his response is that of an accompanying presence, a history of goodness which touches every story of suffering and opens up a ray of light. In Christ, God himself wishes to share this path with us and to offer us his gaze so that we might see the light within it. Christ is the one who, having endured suffering, is "the pioneer and perfecter of our faith." (Heb 12:2).
