A WATER FIGHT WITH GOD

A few summers ago, while I was part of our house in Columbia, I had the opportunity to visit our mission in Broomfield, Colorado where I spent a few weeks with our priests and helped in the parish with Masses and confessions. I arrived during the week of the Totus Tuus summer camp which is a proposal of Christian friendship for school aged students. The camp was organized and run by university students from various parts of the United States.

During this week, my primary responsibility was to hear confessions and preach during the daily Mass for the camp. I was also asked to share my witness and to help in an evening of apologetics, which was a dialogue with the high school students about the questions they had about the Catholic faith. I also really enjoyed the free time, the moments of theater and singing, and especially the lunches where I was able to meet many of the young people of the parish. The possibility of sharing the mission of my brothers filled me with great joy.

On the morning of the last day of the camp, I saw the young children arrive with water guns of various sizes and colors, buckets to throw water, and soon to be filled water balloons. I quickly discovered the tradition of the end of the week “water fight.” Everyone was really excited and prepared for the day! Observing everything that was taking place at the entrance of the church, there was born in me an idea to comment on this experience in the homily at Mass.

After the gospel reading, I approached the ambo with a big desire to touch the hearts of my new young friends. I began by that it is the best one ever made. God's super soaker is the best that has ever existed because its liquid never runs out. Everyone followed my words with great interest.

I asked them: “Do you like to get squirted in the water fight?” Everyone said, “No!” I explained to them that, unlike a traditional water fight, ideally, during the water fight with our heavenly Father, we are supposed to get soaked by the water that God directs our way.

I kept prompting: “What do you think God has inside his super soaker?” “What infinite and limitless liquid does his super-powerful weapon have inside?” A few of the children immediately raised their hands. The first young boy answered: “God probably has Holy Water in his super soaker.” I replied: “That’s a beautiful answer, but it’s not quite the right one.” The next one said: “Father, maybe God has the consecrated wine of the Mass in his super soaker?” I said: “No, that’s not the answer I’m looking for, that would be pretty cool, but you’re getting closer.” “I’m going to give you the answer,” I said. “God has loaded in his super soaker an infinite amount of His Love. Every day our Father in heaven sees us and wants to squirt us with his love, he wants to shower us and bathe us with his infinite affection and mercy.” “The secret of life is to learn to never flee and run away from his “squirts” of love but allow oneself to be totally drenched and bathed by his mercy.”

At the end of Mass, when I was waiting at the exit of the Church to greet my new friends, many came over to invite me to the water fight. Several of my new friends told me: “Father, after lunch, we are going to soak you with a lot of love water!” I was thrilled to be able to share and convey the desire to let myself be bathed by the Father's love and mercy.

Fr. John Roderick

commenting that I was struck seeing the joy and excitement in the faces of the young people when they arrived at the parish with their “weapons” for the afternoon water fight. “Our God is very happy to see the passion and desire with which you arrived at the parish this morning. God, our Father, has this same desire and passion to be with us every day,” I continued. Then, I shared that God loves water fights, too! Immediately, I got the attention of all the young people and the adults. To avoid any misunderstandings, I explained that what I was going to preach about was an analogy and that it should not be taken literally.

I told them that God also has a super soaker water gun and

PRAY THE ROSARY

WITH US

SUNDAY, 11:00 AM

The Rosary is at the service of this ideal; it offers the "secret" which leads easily to a profound and inward knowledge of Christ. We might call it Mary's way. It is the way of the example of the Virgin of Nazareth, a woman of faith, of silence, of attentive listening. It is also the way of a Marian devotion inspired by knowledge of the inseparable bond between Christ and his Blessed Mother: the mysteries of Christ are also in some sense the mysteries of his Mother, even when they do not involve her directly, for she lives from him and through him.

OUR SCHOOL LIBRARY NEEDS NEW BOOKS

Our new librarian Dr. Lauren Bergier has been dreaming big and working hard to create a functional library filled with good books, including:

- auditing and weeding inventory
- adding an online catalogue system
- updating the space

However, our library is missing key books, and we are asking for help to stock the shelves. Please consider purchasing books from the Amazon library wish list. In their library studies with Dr. Bergier, students will learn how to research, locate, and check out books, will gather for readalouds, and will absolutely love library time, if they don't already!

Because the teacher first teaches by example, we expect our teachers to have a vibrant faith life, to attend Mass weekly, and to model prayer for our students. You are expected to be an expert in the content you teach, be able to plan a year long course in each subject using the Archdiocese standards, and implement it using core instructional practices. Ideally, you have a degree or certification in Education and Science and come with at least 1 year teaching experience. We understand that good teachers can come from diverse professional backgrounds and value the wisdom that this brings to a teacher. Yet, an education formation is essential for effective teaching. All of our teachers are expected to hold a professional teaching license or credential. If you do not have one, the Archdiocese of Denver offers an alternative credentialing program that you must enroll in after signing your contract.

FROM ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

Sometimes a retreat can be a good prescription for one's perspective. We are very fortunate at Nativity to have our Adoration Chapel (The Chapel of the Three Patrons). This small beautiful chapel is a perfect setting to spend time with the Blessed Sacrament. It is quiet. Some visitors pray, some read the scriptures, while others may choose to note thoughts in their journals. Some may also choose to just quietly reflect, be in the Lord's presence, and offer thanksgiving.

One of our three chapel patrons, Pope John Paul II, was a strong advocate for spending time with the Blessed Sacrament. On a trip to Ireland in 1979, Pope John Paul II said:

“The visit to the Blessed Sacrament is a great treasure of the Catholic faith. It nourishes social love and gives us opportunities for adoration and thanksgiving, for reparation and supplication.

... Every act of reverence, every genuflection that you make before the Blessed Sacrament, is important because it is an act of faith in Christ, an act of love for Christ.”

The Adoration Chapel is currently open at Nativity Monday through Friday 8:00 am to 5:00 pm. It is a wonderful opportunity to make an individual mini-retreat. Pope John Paul II highlighted that a visit to the Blessed Sacrament “nourishes social love.” This nourishment is very helpful in our work at the St. Vincent de Paul Society, which supports the poor. For more information on our local Nativity St. Vincent de Paul chapter, see our Flocknote service at: NOOL.FLOCKNOTE.COM/SVDP for meeting times and updates.

STEPHEN MINISTER TRAINING CLASS

Don't Miss the Boat! Act Now If You'd Like to Be Part of the Next Stephen Minister Training Class!

Spiritual gifts are gifts to give away. God gives them to us, and we use them to serve others. How are you using your gifts right now? Are you looking for a new way to use them? If your spiritual gifts include one or more of the following—caring, encouragement, mercy, or listening—consider Stephen Ministry, our congregation's one-to-one caregiving ministry. This is a wonderful opportunity for you to grow in faith, develop stronger relational skills, and make a profound difference by bringing Christ's love into the lives of hurting people.

Stephen Ministers are very well trained and supported to provide a high level of emotional and spiritual care to people experiencing a wide range of life's difficulties. The training equips Stephen Ministers with essential caring and relating skills to provide high-quality, one-to-one, Christian care to people who are hurting. People typically become Stephen Ministers out of a desire to help others, but find they experience tremendous growth themselves – personally, spiritually, and relationally. Stephen Ministers often comment on how they have become better parents, spouses, siblings, coworkers, and friends because of the training. They regularly describe the deep spiritual growth they experience serving the ministry as they see God actively at work in and through them to transform their own and others' lives.

TRAINING SCHEDULE

Training begins Wednesday September 6, 2023 from 6:00 pm to 8:30 pm and will run weekly through February 7, 2024, with breaks for Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays. To be part of this class, you will need to fill out the Stephen Minister Application available at the front desk, or send a request for application via email to stephenministry@nool.us. Fill it out and return it to the front desk to Attn: Stephen Ministry or scan and return via email to stephenministry@nool.us.

We will then schedule a time during the first two weeks of August when you can meet with our Stephen Ministry Leaders to learn more about the training and so we can know more about you. If you have any questions or would like more information, talk with one of our Stephen Ministry Leaders:

"THIS IS MY BODY"

JESUS AND THE JEWISH ROOTS OF THE EUCHARIST

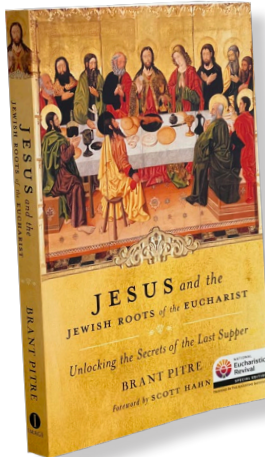

by Dr. Brant Pitre

THE MANNA OF THE MESSIAH

How could Jesus actually give his disciple his flesh to eat? Wouldn't this be cannibalism? (citing p. 76)

[To] understand how he, as Son of Man, can give his body and blood as food and drink, ...understand that he, as Son of Man, has divine power: he is greater than the Temple, he is the Lord of the Sabbath, he is the one who bears the very name of God. That's why in his response to the disciples' disbelief, Jesus pointed first of all to his identity as the heavenly Son of Man, who existed before the world was made: "What if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before?" (John 6:62). It is only through the mystery of Jesus' divine identity and divine power that he will be able to give his disciples his body and blood under the form of "real food" and "real drink" (John 6:55) ... Jesus went on to declare, "It is the Spirit that gives life, the flesh is of no avail" (John 6:63). ... We see that Jesus was not speaking about eating the dead flesh of his corpse (this would be cannibalism). Rather, he was speaking about eating the living flesh of his resurrected body, which would be raised to "life"

by the power of "the spirit: and then taken up to heaven in the ascension.... The new manna is miraculous: in the Eucharist, Jesus will give his crucified and risen body and blood. For after his resurrection and ascension into heaven, his body would no longer be bound by space or time. He would be able to appear when he willed, and where he willed, and under whatever form he willed. (citing p. 111) ...we are able to explain [Jesus'] startling command to drink his blood (John 6:53-56). How could Jesus say such a thing when the Old Testament explicitly forbade the Israelites to drink the blood of an animal? I suggest that the very reason God forbids drinking blood in the Old Covenant is the same reason Jesus commands his disciples to drink his blood: "For the life [Hebrew nephesh] of the flesh is in the blood" (Leviticus 17:11). Jesus would have known the Law of Moses, and he would have known that the power of his own resurrected "life" - indeed his "soul" - was in his blood. Therefore, if the disciples wished to share in the "life" of Jesus' bodily resurrection, then they had to partake of both his body and his blood. (citing p. 115)
