AT THE SCHOOL OF THE SACRED HEART

During the month of June, the Catholic Church invites us to become students of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. “Father John,” you might be thinking to yourself, “isn’t the school year officially over? Why do I need to be a student again!?” To be a student of the Sacred Heart is not an academic exercise! It is an invitation to spend time with Jesus and to contemplate his great love for us through prayer, devotion, meditation, and acts of reparation for grave sins against Jesus and his Church. In this sense, we are all lifelong learners in the school of the Sacred Heart!

The dedication of June to the Sacred Heart may seem to be an old-fashioned tradition. I remember seeing large, framed images of the Sacred Heart hung in prominent places in the homes of my grandparents, but it is not a devotion that I grew up with. However, as I see the month of June now dedicated to other symbols such as the pride flag, I think it is worthwhile to ponder why the Church puts certain symbols before our eyes throughout the liturgical year, such as the Sacred Heart. The saying “you become what you look at” is attributed to St. Augustine. What images and symbols do we want to have before our eyes in this month of June? Could we take time this month to put before our eyes the Sacred Heart, and beg Christ to reveal to us the meaning of love and mercy, so that we can share this with the world?

The dedication of June to the Sacred Heart has its origins in the seventeenth century. At the dawn of modernity, a French mystic, St. Mary Margaret Alacoque, received visions in which Jesus asked her to renew and propagate the devotion to the Sacred Heart in three ways: the celebration of Holy Communion on the first Friday of each month, Eucharistic Adoration on Thursdays, and the celebration of the Feast of the Sacred Heart. In the twentieth century this tradition was strengthened through St. Faustyna Kowalska, the Polish mystic, who similarly received revelations from our Lord asking her to have painted the image of the Divine Mercy and to dedicate the second Sunday of Easter to the Feast of Divine Mercy.

Throughout history the heart has been the symbol of love, life, and friendship. In biblical culture, the heart is the essential core of the human person who stands before God. The Divine Heart of Jesus speaks of the love and mercy of God the Father. In the writings of the New Testament, we have only a few references to the heart of Jesus. In Matthew’s gospel, Jesus says: “Learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart” (11:29). St. John the Evangelist who was present at the foot of the cross found it opportune to include the mystery of Jesus’ side being pierced by the lance of the Roman soldier, and seeing blood and water poured out (19:34). Tradition has interpreted that Jesus’ “side” is indeed his heart. Blood and water flowed from the heart of Jesus.

Reverence to the Sacred Heart of Jesus began soon after his death on the cross. St. Justin Martyr, in the second century, and many other Fathers of the Church after him saw in the pierced heart of Jesus the source from which all graces flow upon mankind. The blood and water are symbols of the sacraments of Eucharist and Baptism.

Have you ever stopped to contemplate the image of the Sacred Heart? Here we see the Sacred Heart of Jesus encircled by a crown of thorns and a lance wounding the heart with drops of blood flowing from the wound. It is inflamed with a cross above it. The heart represents Jesus’ love for humanity. The crown of thorns represents all the suffering that Jesus endured on our behalf for our sins and those of all humankind. He felt the wounds of humanity’s sin in the depths of his heart. The wound opened by the lance recalls the outflow of water and blood, signs of the sacraments. The droplets of blood recall the New Covenant Jesus inaugurated during the Last Supper: “This is my blood of the covenant which will be shed on behalf of many for the forgiveness of sins” (Mt 26:28). The flames recall the burning bush that spoke to Moses and represent the intensity of Jesus’ passionate love that always seeks out the beloved. The cross planted above the heart represents how Jesus’ heart is the foundation of humanity’s redemption. The image itself is a catechism on the love of God which takes flesh in the life of Jesus.

A personal call. More than a mere image, the Sacred Heart of Jesus calls out to each of us with a personal invitation. The Heart of Jesus calls every heart personally to not just reflect on this great mystery but let itself be embraced by it and take part in it. Jesus’ merciful heart is always open towards us, to all our sin and sufferings, and to the whole world. We are invited to personally respond to it through prayer and participation in the sacraments. The merciful heart of Jesus calls and draws every creature to himself.

I will give you a new heart. The school of the Sacred Heart of Jesus is a school of conversion. We are invited to place our hope in the continual initiative of the Divine Master: “I will sprinkle clean water upon you to cleanse you from your impurities, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. I will give you a new heart and place a new spirit within you, taking from your bodies your stony hearts and giving you natural hearts” (Ezek. 36:25-26). This verse has always accompanied me and given me great consolation since I first discovered it during the summer of my second year in seminary. It reminds me of God's continual initiative to purify my heart and his desire to break down my heart of stone. It is always God who takes the initiative of our personal conversion.

The devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus leads us to the Mass and to Adoration. As we see in the image of the heart burning with love, Jesus has a burning desire to share the new life that He has won for us, the triumph of light and love over all darkness, suffering and sin. Through the regular reception of Holy Communion and practice of Adoration, we progressively become more defined by our relationship with Him. We are enabled to bring this new presence into the world. Indeed, we become what we look at.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus is a precious treasure of the Catholic Church that deserves to be continuously celebrated and rediscovered every year. The Church in her wisdom invites Catholics for a whole month to go to the school of Sacred Heart to discover the amazing truths of God's merciful love for humankind. As we continue to face the daily bombardment of our secular and atheistic culture, with its new symbols and celebrations, let us hold fast to and strengthen our efforts to deepen our knowledge and love for the beautiful treasures of our Catholic tradition.

Mary's contemplation is above all a remembering. We need to understand this word in the biblical sense of remembrance as a making present of the works brought about by God in the history of salvation. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." Mark 6:31

Jesus knew his apostles needed to refresh themselves to be at their best, and so do we.

Summer. A time to relax, recharge our batteries and have some fun. It is also a time to appreciate God's goodness and our country. The July 4th holiday celebrates our independence and the freedoms we hold dear. A small story of inspiration surrounds one of our Founding Fathers, Benjamin Franklin, and the Jesuit priest, Fr. John Carroll.

The Continental Congress sent Benjamin Franklin, Charles Carroll, and Samuel Chase to Quebec and Montreal in February of 1776. The purpose of the delegation was to convince Canada to remain neutral in the colonies' struggle for independence or to join them in their "rebellion" against the British Crown. Accompanying them on their long journey from Philadelphia was also Charles Carroll's cousin, Fr. John Carroll. Fr. Carroll, like Ben Franklin, also spoke French.

The trip unfortunately was a flop. It was met by the Canadians with great suspicion and did not go well. Ben Franklin also became very ill on the trip and feared he might pass away. Fr. Carroll, however, provided the elderly Franklin with attentive care on the return journey home, and Franklin recovered. When Ben Franklin was later serving as the U.S. Ambassador to France, the papal nuncio asked Franklin to suggest favorable candidates to be the first bishop of the United States. Franklin spoke highly of his friend, Fr. John Carroll, and Carroll was later appointed by Pope Pius VI to be the first bishop of Baltimore, with authority over Catholics throughout the United States. Fr. John Carroll (1735-1815) also notably advocated for religious liberty, which had an impact on our First Amendment rights.

The kindness Fr. John Carroll showed Benjamin Franklin is echoed in how we should treat our neighbors. For more information on how our local Nativity of Our Lord St. Vincent de Paul chapter serves the poor, see our Flocknote service at: NOOL.FLOCKNOTE.COM/SVDP for meeting times and updates.

STEPHEN MINISTER TRAINING CLASS

Don't Miss the Boat! Act Now If You'd Like to Be Part of the Next Stephen Minister Training Class!

Spiritual gifts are gifts to give away. God gives them to us, and we use them to serve others. How are you using your gifts right now? Are you looking for a new way to use them? If your spiritual gifts include one or more of the following—caring, encouragement, mercy, or listening—consider Stephen Ministry, our congregation's one-to-one caregiving ministry. This is a wonderful opportunity for you to grow in faith, develop stronger relational skills, and make a profound difference by bringing Christ's love into the lives of hurting people.

Stephen Ministers are very well trained and supported to provide a high level of emotional and spiritual care to people experiencing a wide range of life's difficulties. The training equips Stephen Ministers with essential caring and relating skills to provide high-quality, one-to-one, Christian care to people who are hurting. People typically become Stephen Ministers out of a desire to help others, but find they experience tremendous growth themselves – personally, spiritually, and relationally. Stephen Ministers often comment on how they have become better parents, spouses, siblings, coworkers, and friends because of the training. They regularly describe the deep spiritual growth they experience serving the ministry as they see God actively at work in and through them to transform their own and others' lives.

TRAINING SCHEDULE

Training begins Wednesday September 6, 2023 from 6:00 pm to 8:30 pm and will run weekly through February 7, 2024, with breaks for Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays. To be part of this class, you will need to fill out the Stephen Minister Application available at the front desk, or send a request for application via email to stephenministry@nool.us. Fill it out and return it to the front desk to Attn: Stephen Ministry or scan and return via email to stephenministry@nool.us.

We will then schedule a time during the first two weeks of August when you can meet with our Stephen Ministry Leaders to learn more about the training and so we can know more about you. If you have any questions or would like more information, talk with one of our Stephen Ministry Leaders: Katie Borkowski at 703-969-0252

Nativity: Faith & Reason is the primary ministry of our parish. Serving students in preschool, elementary, and middle school, Nativity: Faith & Reason proposes the fullness of faith within an integrated curriculum, striving for academic, spiritual, artistic, and athletic excellence.

FAITH AND REASON

FIDES ET RATIO

Our school is built on the pillars of Faith & Reason, following the guidance of St. John Paul II expressed in the Encyclical Letter, FIDES ET RATIO:

"Faith and reason are like two wings on which the human spirit rises to the contemplation of truth; and God has placed in the human heart a desire to know the truth—in a word, to know himself—so that, by knowing and loving God, men and women may also come to the fullness of truth about themselves."

"Faith alone makes it possible to penetrate the mystery in a way that allows us to understand it coherently."

"To assist reason in its effort to understand the mystery there are the signs which Revelation itself presents. These serve to lead the search for truth to new depths, enabling the mind in its autonomous exploration to penetrate within the mystery by use of reason's own methods, of which it is rightly jealous. Yet these signs also urge reason to look beyond their status as signs in order to grasp the deeper meaning which they bear. They contain a hidden truth to which the mind is drawn and which it cannot ignore without destroying the very signs which it is given."

"Revelation therefore introduces into our history a universal and ultimate truth which stirs the human mind to ceaseless effort; indeed, it impels reason continually to extend the range of its knowledge until it senses that it has done all in its power, leaving no stone unturned."

John Paul II, Fides et ratio

THANK YOU, FATHER MICHAEL!

A "Thank You" reception
on June 25, 2023

There’s a prayer when you say a Mass for a priest, there’s a special Mass in the back of the Roman Missal for a priest, and in the collect of that Mass, which is that main prayer before the readings, it says “May the faith of the Christians be the consolation of the pastors.” And I have to tell you as we gather here tonight, and as I think over those 14 years, that prayer has been very beautifully and completely answered in these days that I have lived. The faith of this community has been a huge consolation to me and to my desire, to the greatest and deepest desire of my heart, which is that all might know and love and belong to Christ, and define their very selves by that belonging to Christ. [...]

So thank you so much from the bottom of my heart for your faith, for your love, for your belonging to Christ and the witness of your presence. Even to this evening in this beautiful location. I wonder if you have just stood here and looked out those windows. It is an amazing, amazing location that the Lord has given us to gather here tonight. So thank you for coming. Thank you for your faith. Thank you for continuing to live. As I said, my previous two parishes, I handed them over to nobody, to closure. I am very, very grateful that the Lord has made it in such a way that after 14 years now, I can hand this beautiful parish into the hands of one of my brothers, a wonderful and great man that you will come to know in the coming months and years. You know him already, but you will come to know him more intimately when he is your pastor, Fr. Emanuele. I know he is here somewhere. [...] So it is delightful to be able to hand this parish, living and strong, over to one of my brothers, and also to continue to be here. [...] I still belong to the house of Denver, which happens to have its physical location at the rectory of our parish. So I will be around. I’ll be delighted to see you continue to live and grow. ”
