PRAY THE

ROSARY

WITH US

SUNDAY, 11:00 AM

A number of historical circumstances [...] make a revival of the Rosary quite timely. First of all, the need to implore from God the gift of peace. [...] At the start of a millennium which began with the terrifying attacks of September 11, 2001, a millennium which witnesses every day in numerous parts of the world fresh scenes of bloodshed and violence, to rediscover the Rosary means to immerse oneself in contemplation of the mystery of Christ who "is our peace," since he made "the two of us one, and broke down the dividing wall of hostility" (Eph 2:14).

— St. John Paul II

Rosarium Virginis Mariae

ADORATION

Wednesday morning, August 16. The members of the parish staff, with some of the priests and the sisters, are spending an hour of adoration in the Church on the Rock at Camp St. Malo. There is great peace and beauty. The occasional tourists, who step into the church with the usual distraction, as if in a museum, hold their voices and stand in awe and silence in front of the unexpected presence. An entire community adores the Lord present amongst us in the Blessed Sacrament. Even the tourists are attracted by the power of His presence and the tension of each body and soul of those who are intently connected to Him in adoration.

It was the most intense moment of a three-day retreat with the intention to show how all our differences and talents are part of the one mission of Christ.

Tuesday night, Fr. Emanuele showed us an episode of The Chosen, the popular TV series on the life of Jesus. The Thunder episode describes the tensions in the early community of the disciples. Each one wanted to be the first and be recognized for their talents. Instead, Jesus shows them that there is primacy only in loving Him and in loving the others, even when they despise or ignore you. On Wednesday, Fr. Emanuele expanded on the topic, showing through the History of Salvation how God made us from the beginning for communion. This communion is the greatest gift of the Father through the loving sacrifice of the Son; it is the Church, the gift of the Holy Spirit; it is our unique existence in the unity of the whole Body of Christ, which means the family, the parish, the universal Church.

At the center of this communion is the Eucharist. The sacrament that makes us one as the Father is one with the Son and the Holy Spirit. For this reason, after the meditation, we spent an hour of silent adoration at Camp St. Malo.

The Church of Saint Catherine, or Church on the Rock, has such a beauty that many tourists who drive by stop to see it. While we were in adoration, a woman stepped in, surprised and confused. Cathy Schaffer, who saw her reaction, discreetly approached her and asked about it. The lady revealed that she was not a religious person and didn't know much about Christianity, but driving by she felt an urge to stop and go into the church. There, she saw the people praying in front of the Blessed Sacrament, and she was confused and happy at the same time. Cathy briefly explained what was happening and invited her to stay for Mass, which followed shortly after. At the moment of the distribution of Holy Communion, the lady didn't know what to do, and Cathy gently invited her to cross her arms and come forward to receive a blessing. From the altar, I could see her coming with an expression of great joy and reverence, like a child who simply feels that what is happening is right for her, even if she couldn't say why. After Mass, Cathy said hi and invited her to visit us and to keep her heart open to the Lord.

At the end of the retreat, during a moment of sharing, Cathy told us about the lady and her story. The Lord just called her to stop and meet us in adoration. That showed me how He wants us to be true missionaries. Not just with talks and events that are an important part of the life of a parish, but first and foremost, showing that we, as a community, pray. At the heart of our words and actions, there is a Presence, a hidden love that wants to be revealed and shown to the world. This is why we treasure our Eucharistic Adoration on Thursday evenings, our Masses, and all the public prayers that we hold in the church, as well as in our families or in small communities. It is not an act of triumphalism or a show. It is instead the gift of the same nature as the Eucharist, the gift of Christ's love to us, that requires letting it shine unto the world and bring healing and peace.

Our mission is an initiative of God himself, who never ceases to send to us those who thirst for Him. They want to meet Him. We just need to be found with Him, to make this encounter happen.

ADULT EDUCATION 2023–2024

EUCHARIST, DISCOVERING THE MASS IN THE BIBLE

ADULT BIBLE STUDY
OFFERED THIS FALL

Jesus said, “This is my body,” and “This is my blood.” Some say they’re merely symbols of remembrance. Others say they’re really the Body and Blood of Christ but can’t explain how that’s possible. The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life – but why? Acclaimed author and scholar Dr. Brant Pitre tackles these questions and more in “Eucharist, Discovering the Mass in the Bible.” He opens Scripture to deepen our understanding of the mystery and wonder that is the Eucharist – and how it can transform your life.

Nativity is offering this program in conjunction with the Catholic Church’s National Eucharistic Revival. A $9 fee covers the cost of the study guide. The program includes a weekly video presentation followed by small group discussion. Register below for either the afternoon sessions facilitated by Theresa Cooley and/or the evening sessions facilitated by Steve Moser.

DENVER CATHOLIC CATECHETICAL SCHOOL CLASS AT NATIVITY

The Denver Catholic Catechetical School is coming to Nativity in September. Class begins 9/11 and continues Mondays, 6:30–8:30 pm.

INFORMATION SESSION:
MONDAY, AUGUST 28 | 6:30 PM
ST. FRANCES CABRINI HALL

The Catechetical School is a two-year systematic presentation of the Catholic Faith, contained both in Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 80-82). This occurs in a setting that takes advantage of all the facets of effective adult learning: engaging lectures, small group dynamics, independent study, and personal application. The course proposes an encounter with Jesus Christ through the knowledge of the faith in the Apostles’ Creed, to the making present of God’s saving acts in the liturgy and the sacraments, to our response with the intimate conversation with God in prayer. Upon completion of this comprehensive two-year program, the student is awarded a “Certificate in Catechetical Studies.”

NATIVITY STEWARDSHIP SPOTLIGHT

A good steward manages the possessions of his employer. We are God's stewards. Stewardship is an expression of our faith. It's about our relationship with God.

When trying to live stewardship as a way of life, it's helpful to consider the four values of stewardship:

IDENTITY: I am a child of God. I belong to God. All I have belongs to God.

TRUST: Let go of what you do not control and trust God to take care of you.

GRATITUDE: I am blessed. I am thankful for what I have, for what God has given me.

LOVE: Charity. Giving is part of loving.

As we grow to understand that all we have is given to us from God and we are simply stewards of these gifts, we return 10% to God through our tithe. Our tithe is our thanksgiving for all that God has given to us. When stewardship is practiced well, we are changed into the people God intends us to be; our relationship strengthens. That is our desire for you.

STEPHEN MINISTRY TRAINING BEGINS THIS SEPTEMBER!

Here's what one Stephen Minister had to say about Stephen Ministry training: "I loved the course work for the Stephen

Ministry training. It not only prepared me to be a Stephen Minister but enriched my life and relationships. I had a difficult and painful relationship with my mother. After reading and role playing the Assertiveness and Boundary Modules,

I learned how to be lovingly assertive with my mother. I now enjoy the relationship, and it is not difficult or painful. Stephen Ministry is a beautiful, meaningful ministry."

—Nativity Parishioner and Stephen Minister

Stephen Ministers bring God's love to those who are hurting. We provide free, confidential, one on one Christian care to people who are going through a challenging time in their lives: those who have lost a job, have lost a loved one, have gone through a divorce, are battling an illness, or other personal crises. God is waiting to make a difference in their lives through you! If you want to find out more about how you can be involved, contact:

Katie Berkowski, 703-969-0252 or
Karen Steur, 303-907-7254.

If you feel you might benefit from the care of a Stephen Minister, please call Katie or Karen or leave a message on our confidential hotline: 303-469-5171 x 113. We will respond within 24 hours.

FAITH & REASON

WHAT IS DIFFERENT ABOUT OUR SCHOOL?

Each class has a patron saint. The saint is chosen by the teacher for personal reasons. Examples:

Mrs. Augustine 2nd grade - St. Dymphna, patron saint of mental health
Ms. Suhr middle school language arts - St. Cecelia. Ms. Suhr is a musician and has always loved St. Cecelia.

Mr. Schwerin, 4th grade - St. Benedict. The structure of his Rule is a great inspiration for both classroom management and our spiritual lives.

Please keep our teachers, staff, and students in your prayers!

GALA: CALL FOR AUCTION ITEMS

The Gala is our largest fundraising event. The funds are used for important school improvement projects. Last year's Gala funds were used for important updates, including: building security upgrades, giving teachers raises, and adding additional classes. There is a gap between tuition costs and actual expenses, so our fundraising is essential to our operations. Funds for the Gala are largely raised by the live and silent auction. A committee of parent volunteers gather the auction items and put on the entire event. We rely on generous donors to give us items and services to auction off. This is also a great way for small businesses to get exposure. We need help getting items for the auction!

Dear Parishioners, do you have anything you would like to give for the auction? Examples: any services such as orthodontist giving a pair of braces, weekend stay in a condo, trips, tickets, experiences...

Contact auction coordinator and Nativity parent Karine Rastatter, karine.rastatter@gmail.com.

With questions about admission or to schedule a tour, contact Shannon Spinuzzi s.spinuzzi@nool.us

Our school is built on the pillars of Faith & Reason, following the guidance of St. John Paul II expressed in the Encyclical Letter, FIDES ET RATIO:

"Faith and reason are like two wings on which the human spirit rises to the contemplation of truth."

INTERVENTION SPECIALIST NEEDED

Nativity: Faith & Reason is seeking a part-time Intervention Specialist for the 2023-2024 school year. The Intervention Specialist will join a committed team of educators in strengthening the academic rigor of our pre K-8 Catholic School. In his or her daily practice, the Intervention Specialist will develop and implement a program addressing the reading and math support needed by teachers with students ranging from proficient to below grade level in math and reading. They will also be responsible for coordinating academic testing and providing teachers with support to use this testing to maximize student learning. Learn more at: www.school.nool.us/job-openings.

ST. JOSEPH MEN'S GROUP

On the week of September 11, 2023, the St. Joseph Men's group starts this year's program Worthy of the Call. Come, join other men for a life changing program that will help you be a better Catholic husband and father. We will have two opportunities to attend:

MONDAY EVENINGS | 7:30-9 PM AT THE FRASSATI HOUSE

WEDNESDAY MORNINGS | 5:45-7 AM IN CABRINI HALL

For questions, email us at Catholicmensgroup@Nool.us.

To Register for Worthy of The Call, use QR code.

MEN'S RETREAT

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 23 | 8:30 AM-4:00 PM

MOTHER CABRINI SHRINE | 20189 CABRINI BLVD., GOLDEN, CO

Registration: $50.00

Directed by: Deacon Steve Vallero

Theme: Do You Want to be Healed (John 5:2-8)

Jesus, while in Jerusalem went by the pool called Bethesda, encountering one man who had been ill for thirty-eight years, asked "Do you want to be healed?" In our lives, each one of us has our own woundedness, brokenness and need for healing. If this sounds like you—come and be a part of this retreat with your brothers in Christ. Jesus loves you and wants more than anything to heal you of your burdens. This retreat will include reflection time, an opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Mass. Lunch will also be provided. We encourage you to come away for a while to be with the Lord. The retreat is limited to the first 40 people. Please contact the office to sign up. Checks should be made out to the Knights of Columbus. Carpooling is available. Any questions, please contact Buz Dabkowski at 720-471-4352.

PILGRIMAGE TO THE HOLY LAND
