LET US RETURN TO GALILEE, THE GALILEE OF OUR FIRST LOVE

EASTER VIGIL IN THE HOLY NIGHT OF EASTER

HOMILY OF POPE FRANCIS

St. Peter's Basilica

Holy Saturday

April 8, 2023

EXCERPTS

The night is drawing to a close and the first light of dawn is appearing upon the horizon as the women set out toward Jesus' tomb. They make their way forward, bewildered and dismayed, their hearts overwhelmed with grief at the death that took away their Beloved. Yet upon arriving and seeing the empty tomb, they turn around and retrace their steps. They leave the tomb behind and run to the disciples to proclaim a change of course: Jesus is risen and awaits them in Galilee. In their lives, those women experienced Easter as a Pasch, a passage. They pass from walking sorrowfully towards the tomb to running back with joy to the disciples to tell them not only that the Lord is risen, but also that they are to set out immediately to reach a destination, Galilee. There they will meet the Risen Lord. The rebirth of the disciples, the resurrection of their hearts, passes through Galilee. Let us enter into this journey of the disciples from the tomb to Galilee.

The Gospel tells us that the women went "to see the tomb" (Mt 28:1). They think that they will find Jesus in the place of death and that everything is over, forever. Sometimes we too may think that the joy of our encounter with Jesus is something belonging to the past, whereas the present consists mostly of sealed tombs: tombs of disappointment, bitterness and distrust, of the dismay of thinking that "nothing more can be done," "things will never change," "better to live for today," since "there is no certainty about tomorrow." If we are prey to sorrow, burdened by sadness, laid low by sin, embittered by failure or troubled by some problem, we also know the bitter taste of weariness and the absence of joy.

At times, we may simply feel weary about our daily routine, tired of taking risks in a cold, hard world where only the clever and the strong seem to get ahead. At other times, we may feel helpless and discouraged before the power of evil, the conflicts that tear relationships apart, the attitudes of calculation and indifference that seem to prevail in society, the cancer of corruption – there is a great deal of it, the spread of injustice, the icy winds of war. Then too, we may have come face to face with death, because it robbed us of the presence of our loved ones or because we brushed up against it in illness or a serious setback. [...]

rather, the Gospel tells us, "they went away quickly from the tomb, fearful yet overjoyed, and ran to announce this to his disciples." They bring the news that will change life and history forever: Christ is risen! At the same time, they remember to convey the Lord's summons to the disciples to go to Galilee, for there they will see him. Let us ask ourselves today, brothers and sisters: what does it mean to go to Galilee? Two things: on the one hand, to leave the enclosure of the Upper Room and go to the land of the Gentiles (Mt 4:15), to come forth from hiding and to open themselves up to mission, to leave fear behind and to set out for the future. On the other hand, and this is very beautiful, to return to the origins, for it was precisely in Galilee that everything began. There the Lord had met and first called the disciples. So, to go to Galilee means to return to the grace of the beginnings, to regain the memory that regenerates hope, the "memory of the future" bestowed on us by the Risen One.

This, then, is what the Pasch of the Lord accomplishes: it motivates us to move forward, to leave behind our sense of defeat, to roll away the stone of the tombs in which we often imprison our hope, and to look with confidence to the future, for Christ is risen and has changed the direction of history. Yet, to do this, the Pasch of the Lord takes us back to the grace of our own past; it brings us back to Galilee, where our love story with Jesus began, where the first call took place. In other words, it asks us to relive that moment, that situation, that experience in which we met the Lord, experienced his love and received a radiantly new way of seeing ourselves, the world around us and the mystery of life itself. Brothers and sisters, to rise again, to start anew, to take up the journey, we always need to return to Galilee, that is, to go back, not to an abstract or ideal Jesus, but to the living, concrete and palpable memory of our first encounter with him. Yes, to go forward we need to go back, to remember; to have hope, we need to revive our memory. This is what we are asked to do: to remember and go forward! If you recover that first love, the wonder and joy of your encounter with God, you will keep advancing. [...]

Remember your own Galilee and walk towards it, for it is the “place” where you came to know Jesus personally, where he stopped being just another personage from a distant past, but a living person: not some distant God but the God who is at your side, who more than anyone else knows you and loves you. Brother, sister, remember Galilee, your Galilee, and your call. Remember the Word of God who at a precise moment spoke directly to you. Remember that powerful experience of the Spirit; that great joy of forgiveness experienced after that one confession; that intense and unforgettable moment of prayer; that light that was kindled within you and changed your life; that encounter, that pilgrimage... Each of us knows where our Galilee is located. Each of us knows the place of his or her interior resurrection, that beginning and foundation, the place where things changed. [...] Think back on what it was like, reconstruct the context, time and place. [...] For it is when you forgot that first love, when you failed to remember that first encounter, that the dust began to settle on your heart. That is when you experienced sorrow and, like the disciples, you saw the future as empty, like a tomb with a stone sealing off all hope. [...] The Lord is an expert in rolling back the stones of sin and fear. He wants to illuminate your sacred memory, your most beautiful memory, and to make you relive that first encounter with him. Remember and keep moving forward. Return to him and rediscover the grace of God’s resurrection within you! Return to Galilee. Return to your Galilee. Let each of us return to his or her own Galilee, to the place where we first encountered him. Let us rise to new life!

OF EASTER

WE WELCOME WITH JOY THE NEW MEMBERS OF THE CHURCH AT NATIVITY!

All-powerful God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, by water and the Holy Spirit you freed your sons and daughters from sin and gave them new life. Send your Holy Spirit upon them to be their helper and guide. Give them the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of right judgment and courage, the spirit of knowledge and reverence. Fill them with the spirit of wonder and awe in your presence.

MISSIONARY SISTERS of ST. CHARLES

Missionary Sisters of St. Charles will have their annual anniversary celebration on April 6. All parishioners are invited to join them for a joyful evening.

Light refreshments and desserts will be served. Please sign up at the front desk, or call 303-469-5171 so the sisters know how much food to prepare. There is no cost.

The Missionary Sisters of St. Charles were born from the desire of several young women to share the ideals of the Priestly Fraternity of the Missionaries of St. Charles Borromeo. The mission of the Sisters is to bear witness to the beauty, truth, and freedom they experience in their encounter with Christ and familiarity with Him. They are available for all tasks and professions that can serve this purpose and where their presence is required. One of the aspects of Sisters' life is being called to establish new places where they can live the relationship with God—and from this experience—be open to dialogue with the whole world.

and the march. The bus will arrive at Nativity at 9:30 am. It will leave Nativity promptly at 10 am for the Rally & March at the Capitol at 11 am.

General info: marchforlife.org/colorado

Thirty-two men signed up to attend the Nativity Men's Lenten Retreat on March 15-17. In spite of the 36 inches of snow in Estes Park, the retreat was a success. The men learned from the retreat leader, Tomas Fuerte, the steadfastness and strength of several Old Testament Biblical men in the face of obstacles, persecution and evil. The men returned to their homes on Sunday with a renewed sense of Christian purpose and strength. Stay alert for next year's dates and registration.

COLLECTION COUNTERS NEEDED!

If you would like to be involved in a ministry at Nativity but have limited time, this is the perfect opportunity for you. No experience necessary! It only takes a few hours each time and you only count once or twice a month, usually on a Monday. It is very valuable to our parish and easy to learn. Please contact Candy Gritz at 303-469-5171 or c.gritz@nool.us for more information.

PRAYER IN THE SQUARE

Please join us at Prayer in the Square on Saturday, April 6 at 10:15 am at N. Midway Park.

FROM THE ROSARY TEAM

Pray the rosary with seniors at nursing facilities. Men and Women's Teams! The Rosary Team is growing and has over 300 volunteers in over 100 facilities throughout the Denver Archdiocese. Training provided. Visit our website to sign up, www.therosaryteam.org or email: teresa@therosaryteam.org.

The Rosary Team's outreach to nursing homes holds a special significance in the Catholic tradition. In a world that often marginalizes the elderly, volunteers offer companionship and spiritual support to seniors facing physical limitations and loss. The rosary is a powerful prayer handed to us by Mary. With the elderly who need company, we can contribute to the conversion of the world, the end of wars, and to peace.

A 7-WEEK GRIEF WORKSHOP FOR THOSE WHO LOST THEIR LOVED ONES

Open to everyone, especially anyone who has taken the grief workshop at any point in the past. There is NO cost! Based on the Seven Intentions of Mourning. As one contemplates each intention, one is encouraged to consider a Corporal or Spiritual Act of Mercy to honor the loved one and—at the same time—help someone else. There will be a video to watch each time and then a discussion to help look at the particular intention in more depth.

FROM ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

"We are an Easter People and Alleluia is our song!"
— John Paul II

In this Angelus address given in Adelaide, Australia, on November 30, 1986, Pope John Paul II said, "We are not looking for a shallow joy but rather a joy that comes through faith, that grows through unselfish love, that respects the "fundamental duty of love of neighbor, without which it would be unbecoming to speak of Joy."

We rejoice in this day when Jesus conquered sin and death. We gather with our family and friends to celebrate. In the longer vision of things, we can also reflect on the Resurrection of the Lord, with a celebrated quote by author C.S. Lewis which reminds us of our mission:

"I believe in Christianity as I believe that the Sun has risen not only because I see it but because by it I see everything else." (Reflections: Christianity Makes Sense of The World by the C.S Lewis Institute, December 1, 2013).

On our Easter journey, we appreciate the continued support of our parish family and friends.

Nativity is under the pastoral care of the Priestly Fraternity of St. Charles Borromeo, a religious order, founded in 1985 by Msgr. Massimo Camisasca in Italy. The order has its origins in the charism of Fr. Luigi Giussani, founder of the Catholic lay movement Communion and Liberation (CL). Here is how the Priestly Fraternity of St. Charles Borromeo is described by the founder, Msgr. Massimo Camisasca:

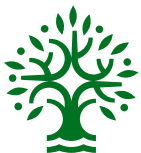

Fraternity: “The Fraternity is a companionship made up of people that are placed together by an Other. [...] Each of us [...] is continually accompanied by Christ through his brothers.”

Priestly: “The priestly vocation [...] is a continuous communion with God and man. [...] It acts as a bridge between heaven and earth, represents a fundamental link in the history of salvation, and also serves as an important figure in the journey towards unity among men.”

Missionary: “Mission [...] consists simply in entering within the same mission for which God sent His own Son into the world, for which the Son sent the Apostles, and for which, in turn, the Apostles sent other brothers, until the visible echo of that event touched even us.”

The priests of the Fraternity live together in houses of three or more. The communion among them is meant to sustain their vocation and be a path towards conversion. They are willing to be sent around the world wherever the Church has a need, according to the wishes of the bishop of the diocese in which they reside. Learn more at:
