“In the earthly liturgy we take part in a foretaste of that heavenly liturgy which is celebrated in the holy city of Jerusalem toward which we journey as pilgrims, where Christ is sitting at the right hand of God, a minister of the holies and of the true tabernacle.”

(Sacrosanctum Concilium, 8)

Dear Parishioner,

This Sunday, we conclude the Octave of Easter. The day of Easter lasts for eight days so that we can be re-created, in seven-plus-one days, by this divine event of the Resurrection of Christ.

The Sacred Triduum we celebrated together has certainly helped us to be more aware of Christ's resurrection through this octave. It was truly a divine and human event that immersed us into the mysteries of Christ's passion, death, and resurrection. As human creatures made of mind and body, we truly need to be physically drawn into the Mystery of God through the perceptive signs of the Liturgy. We cannot simply rely on our thoughts and our imagination; we cannot simply try to concentrate and be absorbed by the events of our salvation.

Through washing someone's feet, I could truly perceive anew that service is an essential dimension of my priesthood. By staying in the dark, silent church close to the Tabernacle, I was drawn into the mystery of Gethsemane. Only through fasting could I have a true glimpse of what Christ went through for us in the passion. Only entering the dark church in silence, following the only light of the Paschal Candle, and seeing the light spreading through the assembly gathered in the church, we could taste the beginning of Creation when God said, through his Son, “Let there be light,” and we could taste what happened that night in the sepulcher and in the netherworld, when Christ, true light, broke through the darkness of death, the yoke of sin. During Easter Vigil, we could feel our catechumens sharing Christ's death and resurrection as they immersed themselves in the water of the baptismal font. On the day of Easter, we felt rejuvenated again by commemorating our baptism and being sprinkled with Holy Water.

Besides these tactile and visible elements, the Liturgy immersed us in these marvelous and divine works of Salvation through sound. Deep and thick silence introduced us to the Mystery of the Presence of God. Sacred Music, sung magnificently by our Choir, helped us contemplate this Presence. The lyrics and music of Allegri's Miserere (Psalm 51) that we listened to during the kissing of the relic of the Cross led us down into the depth of the misery for our sin and then elevated our misery into a soaring plea to God for His Mercy. The Missa de Angelis Mass parts, now part of our congregational singing, introduced us to the Mystery of each Mass.

I was told by one of you that during one of our Easter Masses, a guest exclaimed in wonder at the beauty of the Liturgy, and she pulled up secretly her phone, trying to capture what her heart was perceiving and, at the same time, trying to avoid being disruptive or disrespectful to the Liturgy. This clumsy and yet genuine act, although it revealed for sure a lack of familiarity with the practice of her faith, indicates to us once again the wonder we ourselves perceived during the Triduum.

Truly the Liturgy is the work of Christ the Priest and of His Body, which is the Church. That's why the summit of the Liturgy is the Eucharist, where in the Body and Blood of Christ, Christ coincides with the reality through which he makes Himself manifest.

Happy Easter!
Fr. Emanuele

ALL THAT WE HAVE COMES FROM THE LORD STEWARDSHIP SPOTLIGHT

The Easter Season is a special time of recommitment to the Lord. Rejoicing in the Lord's Resurrection and contemplating His Divine Mercy helps us remember all that God gives us. All that we have comes from the Lord: our life, home, family, friends, our faith, trials, blessings, our job, money, our free will. Everything we have is a gift from God.

This is a great time to remember our stewardship commitments. It's been a few months since we made our pledge of prayer, talent, and treasure. In this beautiful season filled with joy, let's reflect on our commitments. If we've fallen behind, let's start again. Let's wrap ourselves in God's mercy, pray, and begin. Let's experience God's presence as we trust in Him.

COLLECTION COUNTERS NEEDED!

If you would like to be involved in a ministry at Nativity but have limited time, this is the perfect opportunity for you. No experience necessary! It only takes a few hours each time and you only count once or twice a month, usually on a Monday. It is very valuable to our parish and easy to learn. Please contact Candy Gritz at 303-469-5171 or c.gritz@nool.us for more information.

*Proclaim that mercy is the greatest attribute of God.
All the works of My hands are crowned with mercy.
Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska
Notebook I, No. 301*

Whenever we pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet, we ask for mercy and forgiveness not only for ourselves but also for the whole world. We can extend this to the love of our neighbor by reflecting on the Beatitudes from Jesus' Sermon on the Mount, specifically, "Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy" (Matthew 5:7).

At St. Vincent de Paul, we strive to help our neighbors in need who are going through tough times. It is good to remember that all of us can feel vulnerable. Sometimes there are financial concerns, and sometimes we may feel depressed or overwhelmed by unforeseen events or circumstances. When we have received the gift of encouragement ourselves, we can often empathize with someone who is going through difficulties that may put them in need of help with rent, a car repair, or a utility bill. In his Divine Mercy, Jesus invites all of us to trust.

MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS
FOR THE FIRST WORLD CHILDREN'S DAY
MAY 25-26, 2024

Dear Children!

Your first World Day, which will be held in Rome on May 25-26 this year, is fast approaching. That is why I thought of sending you a Message. [...] I want to speak to each of you, dear children, because, as the Bible teaches us, and as Jesus showed so often, "you are precious" in God's eyes (Is 43:4). [...] All of you, girls and boys, are a source of joy for your parents and your families, but also for our human family and for the Church, in which each of us is like a link in a great chain stretching from the past to the future and covering the whole earth. [...]

That is why I encourage you to pay attention to the stories of grown-ups: your moms and dads, your grandparents and great grandparents. And not to forget all those other children and young people who are already battling illness and hardship, in hospital or at home, and those who even now are being cruelly robbed of their childhood. [...]

Now, I am going to share a special secret with you. If we really want to be happy, we need to pray, to pray a lot, to pray every day, because prayer connects us directly to God. Prayer fills our hearts with light and warmth; it helps us to do everything with confidence and peace of mind. Jesus constantly prayed to the Father. Do you know what Jesus called him? In his language, he simply called him "Abba," which means "Daddy" (Mk 14:36). Let's do the same thing! We will always feel that Jesus is close to us. He himself promised us that, when he said, "For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them" (Mt 18:20). [...]

Dear children, you may know that in May, many of us will be together in Rome, to be together with children from all over the world. To prepare well for this, I would ask all of you to pray the same prayer that Jesus taught us - the Our Father. Recite it every morning and every evening, in your families too, together with your parents, brothers, sisters and grandparents. But not just by saying the words! [...] Jesus, who offered himself on the Cross to gather all of us together in love, who conquered death and reconciled us with the Father, wants to continue his work in the Church through us. Think about this, especially those of you who are preparing to receive First Communion. God has loved us from all eternity (Jer 1:5). He looks upon us with the eyes of a loving father and a gentle mother. He never forgets us (Is 49:15) and every day he accompanies us and renews us with his Spirit.

2024-2025 ENROLLMENT IS OPEN PRESCHOOL THROUGH 8TH GRADE

We are accepting new students for the 2024-2025 School Year. Please share this news with your friends, family, and neighbors who are looking for a high-quality education rooted in Catholic values. Nativity: Faith & Reason is the primary ministry of our parish. Serving students in preschool, elementary, and middle school, Nativity: Faith & Reason proposes the fullness of faith within an integrated curriculum, striving for academic, spiritual, artistic, and athletic excellence.

Nativity is under the pastoral care of the Priestly Fraternity of St. Charles Borromeo, a religious order, founded in 1985 by Msgr. Massimo Camisasca in Italy. The order has its origins in the charism of Fr. Luigi Giussani, founder of the Catholic lay movement Communion and Liberation (CL). Here is how the Priestly Fraternity of St. Charles Borromeo is described by the founder, Msgr. Massimo Camisasca:

Fraternity: “The Fraternity is a companionship made up of people that are placed together by an Other. [...] Each of us [...] is continually accompanied by Christ through his brothers.”

Priestly: “The priestly vocation [...] is a continuous communion with God and man. [...] It acts as a bridge between heaven and earth, represents a fundamental link in the history of salvation, and also serves as an important figure in the journey towards unity among men.”

Missionary: “Mission [...] consists simply in entering within the same mission for which God sent His own Son into the world, for which the Son sent the Apostles, and for which, in turn, the Apostles sent other brothers, until the visible echo of that event touched even us.”

The priests of the Fraternity live together in houses of three or more. The communion among them is meant to sustain their vocation and be a path towards conversion. They are willing to be sent around the world wherever the Church has a need, according to the wishes of the bishop of the diocese in which they reside. Learn more at:
